

The title contenders of Germany's groove league

One band, one team. Formed in excellent training centres, the Rhythmusportgruppe does not get into an offside position performing boring and lame songs. Instead, they impress their fans with fast, elegant sprints through the groove parkour. Heavy beats in the defense, tight harmonies in the midfield and striking brass-forwards help scoring spectacularly between the bar lines, causing enthusiastic frenzy in the stands.

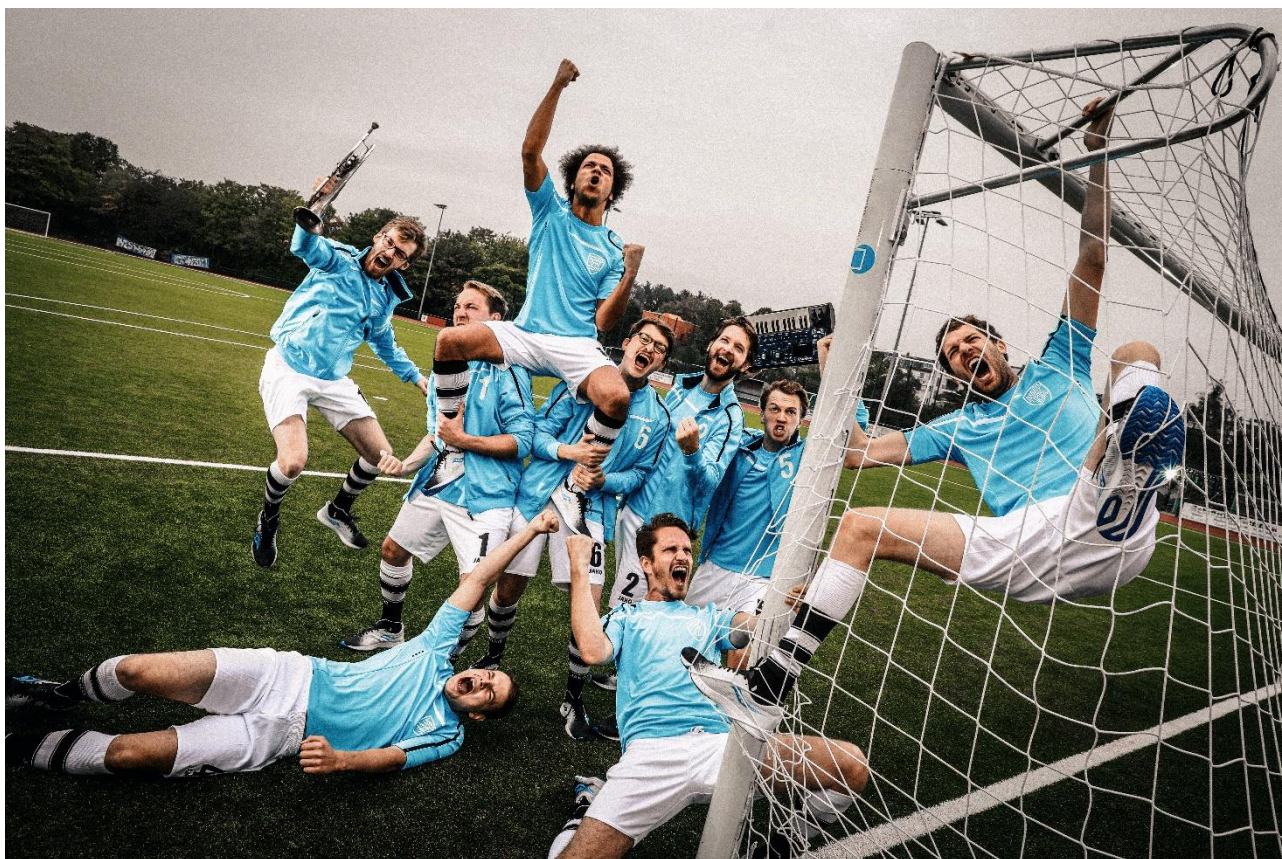

Funky, sporty Groove-Pop and modern Funk-Rock to singalong and clap your hands. The members of the Rhythmusportgruppe are always on the ball, always on the move, always athletic.
